Evening Prayer

5:00PM

September 11, 2011 Twenty-fourth Sunday

Ten years have passed, O Lord, ten years of mourning, of struggling to make sense and to go on. Ten years since crashing planes, collapsing building, rivers of smoke and ash brought death and fear.

*Give us the courage to hope again, Father.
To pray even for our enemies, and for ourselves.
Give us the grace to be freed from hate and unbound from the paralysis of fear.
Give us the freedom of the children of God:*

Awaken in our hearts a firm resolve to reject the ways of violence, to combat everything that sows hatred and division within the human family, and to work for the dawn of a new era of solidarity, justice and peace.

*We ask this through the Prince of Peace,
our Way, our Truth, and our Life,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

St. Clement Young Adult
Weekly Meeting

Gathering regularly for prayer, fellowship, community service, and outreach to other young adults in the Archdiocese of Boston, we come from all over the area. Many of us are students and young professionals. Our love for God and each other is vibrant and contagious, and we are constantly welcoming new members. At this one hour meeting, we listen to the readings of the Mass and discuss how to apply the message to our lives today. Some of the insights are truly inspiring. Come each week or once a month. All young adults are invited and encouraged to attend.

There is no commitment. For more information visit www.stclementyoungadults.org or to be added to the SCYA email list, please contact: scya_boston@yahoo.com

LCCS.—Sept. thru May

LANTERI CATHOLIC CINEMA SOCIETY

Fr. John Wykes, OMV

Once a month 7:00-9:00PM Upper Rm

See “This Week” section of bulletin for date

We seek to study, appreciate, and promote good films. The Society is named after Ven. Fr. Lanteri, founder of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary, who sought to promote the primary media of his day as a means of combating current errors. We discuss the selected film and show various clips to aid us in our discussion. Being a member to our new Cinema Society is easy –all you have to do is come to one of our meetings.

Parking at St. Clement's

Church Parking begins at the corner of Ipswich Street and extends along the property line of 1105 Boylston Street. A parking permit (obtained from St Clement) must be visible on the dashboard.

If you park anywhere else or you do not have a St. Clement parking permit you will be ticketed by the State Police and towed to Jamaica Plain (at a min. expense of $125.00)!

Young Adult Corner—Events sponsored by the Young Adult Community

Interested in getting more involved at St. Clements? Interested in organizing retreats, volunteer opportunities, discussion groups, and other events for the Young Adult Community at St. Clements? The current leadership team is looking for young adults in the community who are ready to take on some of these responsibilities!!

The team works closely with Fr. Peter Grover and plans Day Retreats, Volunteer Fairs, monthly and ad hoc volunteer opportunities and socials, as well as ad hoc discussion groups, and annual events such as the Baby Item Drive, and Thanksgiving Food Drive. For more information or if you have questions - email the leadership team at SCYA_Boston@yahoo.com Holy Rosary—Mondays 6:30pm-7:00pm; Front Room: Join us as we recite the Holy Rosary each week. Rosaries will be provided. All are welcome!

Young Adult Meeting—Mondays 7-8:00pm Front Room: At this one hour meeting, we read the upcoming Sunday's Mass readings and discuss how to apply their message to our lives today. We go out to a local restaurant for food and fellowship directly after. Come each week or once a month! All young adults are invited and encouraged to attend.

Young Adult Yahoo Group: To be added to the Yahoo Group and receive email announcements from the young adult community, please email emilie.berzin@gmail.com

1st Sunday Social: Join us on the first Sunday of each month, following the 8pm Mass, for fellowship and refreshments with other young adults in the St. Clements community. Takes place in the side foyer, or outside when the weather cooperates.

VOLUNTEER:

If you are interested in seeing additional volunteer opportunities, please email scya_boston@yahoo.com with the name of the organization, contact information of the volunteer coordinator (if available) and any information on your experience volunteering there.

St. Francis House, 39 Boylston St., Boston, MA

1st Saturday of each Month: We will be serving lunch at St. Francis House soup kitchen each month. Please come help if you can; there are over 400 men and women who depend on St. Francis House for lunch. The soup kitchen depends on volunteers, like us, to prepare and serve the food and clean up afterwards. Preparation starts at 9:00am, and we are usually finished with clean-up by 1:00pm. If you're interested, please contact Joey George: jgeorge@alum.mit.edu

Carmelite Monastery, Roxbury, MA:

The Carmelites of Boston (located in Roxbury) are looking for people to donate their time as either drivers or to answer the phone. Drivers are needed to take the sisters to and from doctors appointments throughout the week on an on-call basis. They also need someone to help them answer their phones throughout the week (both regularly and on-call). If you are interested in either please give them a call at 617-442-1411 between the hours of 930am and 345pm Monday through Friday. When you leave a message please state that you are from St. Clements and leave your name, number, whether or not you would like to do this regularly or on an on-call basis, and what days and times you are available. Please ask for either Virginia Rich or one of the sisters to call you back.

FriendshipWorks, Boston, MA (formerly Match-up Interfaith)

Assist elders or adults with disabilities in getting to doctor's appointments. Volunteer on your own schedule once a week or a few times a month. No car needed. Call 617-482-1510 or fill out an application online at <http://www.fw4elders.org/volunteer>

Homeless Shelter Needs Additional Volunteers

Sancta Maria House, an overnight shelter for homeless women in the South End of Boston, is looking for volunteers to help with regular cleaning, organizing of donations, house upkeep, as well as overnight volunteers. If you're interested in helping out in some capacity, please contact the housemother, Sheena at santamariahouse@verizon.net or 617 423-4366.
